If you are a member of the Greater University Chamber, your cost is $ 0

If you are not a member of the Greater University Chamber, your cost is $ 25

(if you have not had a chance to join us yet, why not do it now and take advantage of one of our many member discounts)

What do you get with your tabling fee?

- You will be included in our City permit for this event. If you have a Seattle Business License and you provide us with a copy with your application you will be allowed to sell from the sidewalk. We will provide you with a locations.
- Your organization name and your table location will appear on our website.

There is a cost associated with producing this event (a permit is required, we must provide insurance coverage, and we have printing and advertising costs). We are keeping the cost per participating business low to encourage your participation. You must apply and be included on the permit for this event in order to place anything on the sidewalk. Pedestrian access must be maintained at all times.

The UW Daily is offering a special advertising opportunity. Their flyer is attached. We have negotiated a great rate for this promotion, but to take advantage of the special map promotion you must be registered as a participant for the AVEventure event. Advertising costs are in addition to your participation fee.
